

We Value Your Privacy

“Light of Life Rescue Mission does not collect personal information about visitors to our website except when visitors specifically provide such information on a voluntary basis. Your personal information will not be used by or distributed to third parties but will be used by Light of Life Rescue Mission and the payment processor to securely process any donations. We never sell or rent our supporters/ names.”